Gateway International Festival 2023
March 17, 2023, 6-9 pm

This spring, Gateway will host its first ever International Festival to embrace and celebrate our diverse campus community. There will be performances, exhibits, food, and crafts. We are still in planning stages and are now calling out for student performances and cultural/country exhibits! See below for further descriptions about what we are looking for. If interested, fill out the form (<https://forms.gle/VeH6x9dJVTX4ZRAY6>). Spots are limited so sign up today!

We are looking for all types of help: set up, clean up, planning, performances, exhibits...If interested in general help, also fill out the form in the link above.

Performances:

Do you love to dance, sing, or recite poetry? One of the most exciting parts of Gateway's first ever International Festival will be the cultural performances that showcase our talented students. Sign up now and help us highlight all the international talent we have on campus!

Exhibits:

The Exhibit Hall will be a vibrant showcase of the many cultures we have on campus. See yourself represented by volunteering to design a table about your ancestral country/country of origin! Make the display your own and give others the opportunity to sample your country's foods, see examples of cultural clothing, and learn more about your country's history, popular sports, art, and even hear cultural music!
